

RON COCKS MEMORIAL AWARD

FOR OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP IN IRRIGATION

Every two years, at the IrrigationNZ conference, the Ron Cocks Memorial Award is awarded for outstanding leadership in irrigation, it recognises a person who has made a significant contribution to irrigation in New Zealand.

J.R. (Ron) Cocks was a Mid Canterbury farmer, a pioneer, visionary and a leader in farming affairs. His greatest legacy to New Zealand was his leadership in water issues. The memorial award acknowledges that legacy, encouraging others to follow his leadership.

Criteria for the award is based on duration of service, quality of service, actual achievement, level of voluntary input, and leadership.
